Terms of Reference

Audit & Finance Committee

The Audit & Finance Committee (the Committee) is a standing committee of, and reports to, the Board of Alberta Gaming, Liquor and Cannabis (AGLC). Through these terms of reference, the Board delegates certain responsibilities to the Committee to support the Board in discharging its mandate to oversee the AGLC's governance, risk management, internal control practices, financial performance, business planning, and information technology. This oversight increases confidence in the integrity of AGLC practices.

1. MANDATE, PURPOSE AND AUTHORITY

The Committee shall provide assistance in fulfilling the Board's oversight responsibilities over AGLC with specific reference to the:

- a) Integrity of AGLC financial statements and financial reporting process;
- b) Oversight of financial and business planning processes and monitoring performance;
- c) Monitor the organization's risk;
- d) Compliance with applicable legal and regulatory requirements;
- e) Performance of AGLC's Internal Audit function (Internal Audit);
- f) Oversight of the work performed by the Office of the Auditor General;
- g) Oversight of enterprise information technology (IT) governance; and
- h) Oversight of business continuity and disaster recovery plans.

In broad terms, the Committee reviews each of the items noted above and provides independent advice and guidance regarding the adequacy and effectiveness of management practices and potential improvement to those practices.

The Committee shall be empowered to investigate any matter brought to its attention with full access to all AGLC books, records and personnel, using internal resources, counsel or outside experts when necessary or appropriate.

2. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Audit

It is the responsibility of the Committee to provide independent, objective advice and oversight on the adequacy of management arrangements with respect to the following aspects of the organization:

Values and Ethics

To obtain reasonable assurance with respect to the organization's values and ethics practices, the Committee will:

- Review and assess the policies, procedures, and practices established by AGLC to monitor conformance with its code of conduct and ethical policies by all managers and staff of the organization.
- Provide oversight on the mechanisms established by management to establish and maintain high ethical standards for all managers and staff of the organization.
- Review and provide advice on the systems and practices established by management to monitor compliance with laws, regulations, policies and standards of ethical conduct and to identify and deal with any legal or ethical violations.
- Review the process for communicating the code of conduct to the organization's personnel and for monitoring compliance with that code.
- Obtain regular updates from management and the organization's Legal Counsel & Ethics Officer regarding compliance matters.

Risk Management

To obtain reasonable assurance with respect to the organization's risk management practices, the Committee will:

- Review AGLC's key enterprise risks as required or at a minimum on a quarterly basis.
- Receive and review a semi-annual report on management's implementation and maintenance of an appropriate enterprise wide risk management process.
- Provide oversight on significant risk exposures and control issues that may impact strategic, operational, financial and compliance/legal/regulatory objectives.
- Review and provide advice on the risk management processes established and maintained by management and the procedures in place to ensure they are operating effectively.

Fraud

To obtain reasonable assurance with respect to the organization's procedures for the prevention and detection of fraud, the Committee will:

- Oversee management's arrangements for the prevention and deterrence of fraud.
- Ensure that appropriate action is taken against known perpetrators of fraud.
- Challenge management and internal and external auditors to ensure that the AGLC has an appropriate antifraud program with controls in place to identify potential fraud and that investigations are undertaken if fraud is detected.

Control

To obtain reasonable assurance with respect to the adequacy and effectiveness of the AGLC's controls in responding to risks within the AGLC's governance, operations, financial transactions and information systems, the Committee will:

- Consider the effectiveness of the AGLC's control framework, including information technology security and control.
- Review and provide advice on the controls fundamental to achieving the organizational objectives.
- Receive reports on all matters of significance arising from work performed by other providers of financial and internal control assurance to senior management and the Board.

Compliance

The Committee will:

- Review the effectiveness of the systems for monitoring compliance with laws and regulations and the results of management's investigation and follow-up (including disciplinary action) on any instances of noncompliance.
- Review the observations and conclusions of internal and external auditors and the findings of any regulatory agencies.

Internal Audit Activity

To obtain reasonable assurance with respect to work of the internal audit activity, the Committee will provide oversight on these matters:

Internal Audit Terms of Reference and Resources

- Review and approve the internal audit terms of reference at least annually. The terms of reference should be reviewed to ensure that they accurately reflect the internal audit activity's purpose, authority, and responsibility, consistent with the mandatory guidance of The Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA) and the scope and nature of assurance and consulting services, as well as changes in the financial, risk management and governance process of the organization and developments in the professional practices of internal auditing.
- Advise the Board about increases and decreases to the resources requested to carry out the internal audit plan. Evaluate whether additional resources are needed permanently or temporarily through contracting external consultants.

Internal Audit Engagement and Follow-up

- Review internal audit reports and other communications to management.
- Review and track management's action plans to address the results of internal audit engagements.
- Review and advise management on the results of any special investigations.
- Receive updates from the Director of Internal Audit about any internal audit engagements or non-audit engagements that have been completed but no formal report was issued.
- Receive reports from the Director of Internal Audit whether any evidence of fraud has been identified during internal audit engagements and evaluate what additional actions, if any, should be taken.
- Conduct regularly scheduled in-camera meetings with the Director of Internal Audit to discuss any sensitive matters.

Standards Conformance

- Inquire of the Director of Internal Audit about steps taken to ensure that the internal audit activity conforms with The IIA International Standards for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing (Standards).
- Ensure that the internal audit activity has a quality assurance and improvement program and that the results of these periodic assessments are presented to the Committee.
- Ensure that the internal audit activity has an external quality assurance review every five years.
- Review the results of the independent external quality assurance review and monitor the implementation of the internal audit activity's action plans to address any recommendations.
- Monitor any recommendations for the continuous improvement of the internal audit activity.

External Auditors (Office of the Auditor General)

To obtain reasonable assurance with respect to work of the external assurance providers, the Committee will meet with the external assurance providers during the planning phase of the engagement, the presentation of the audited financial statements, and the discussion of the results of engagements and recommendations for management.

The Committee will:

- Review the external auditors' proposed audit scope and approach, including coordination of audit effort with the internal audit activity.
- Have regularly scheduled exclusive meetings with external auditors to discuss any sensitive matters.
- Monitor management's progress on action plans.

To obtain reasonable assurance that management has acted on the results and recommendations of internal and external audit engagements, the Committee will regularly review reports on the progress of implementing approved management action plans and audit recommendations resulting from completed audit engagements.

Finance
