

February 19, 2016

For immediate release

Casino worker charged with theft and fraud

St. Albert... The Alberta Gaming and Liquor Commission has charged long-term Northlands Park employee Alice Marie Linton of Edmonton, Alberta, with theft over $5,000 and fraud over $5,000.

Ms. Linton is scheduled to appear in court on April 27, 2016.

The Alberta Gaming and Liquor Commission is committed to ensuring the integrity of Alberta's gaming and liquor industries, generating revenue for the province and the people of Alberta, while recognizing and responding to the social impacts of its products and services.

Media inquiries

Megan Thorburn
Megan.thorburn@aglc.ca
780-819-1221
Manager, Communications (Acting)
Alberta Gaming and Liquor Commission

Cathy Kiss
ckiss@northlands.com
(780) 886-2760
Vice President, Corporate Relations &
Agriculture
Northlands