

Retail Cannabis Store Licence

Retail cannabis store licences are for the sale of AGLC registered cannabis products for off-premises use.

Applications will be reviewed for accuracy and completeness. All aspects of applications are subject to ongoing reviews by AGLC.

STEPS

There are six steps involved in the licensing process for a Retail Cannabis Store Licence. The time required to process an application varies among applications; however, applicants should expect an approximate processing time of two to four months. AGLC may request additional information at any time from the applicant as required.

1) Municipal Assessment

Municipalities may have bylaws or zoning restrictions relating to retail cannabis stores that impact your eligibility for a licence. It is recommended that you contact your municipal government to determine local requirements prior to the submission of your application to AGLC.

2) Preliminary Assessment

Applicants are required to submit a variety of documents for review. Documents include (but are not limited to):

- Floor Plan
- Application Forms
- Licence Fees
- Personal and Financial Documents

All applications are posted on the AGLC website at aglc.ca for 7 calendar days. If an objection is received for the application, the applicant will be notified by AGLC's Inspections department.

3) Personal and Financial Due Diligence Assessment

Applications are reviewed to ensure that the applicant meets the approval of AGLC and will comply with all applicable federal, provincial and municipal legislation. This will include a due diligence background investigation, including interviews of key persons.

4) Premises Assessment

A site visit will be scheduled with an AGLC Inspector to ensure the location and physical premises meets all AGLC requirements. The Inspector will also review the required operating procedures with management.

5) Issuance of Licence

Approved applications will be issued a Cannabis Retail Store licence. Licences are not transferable and void if the premises is sold, leased, assigned or otherwise transferred to another individual or party.

6) After the Issuance of a Licence

Cannabis licensees will be contacted by an Account Management Coordinator to begin the set-up process for ordering and reporting purposes. This process takes approximately 3 weeks to complete. Documents include (but are not limited to):
