

Guidelines

Sports Groups

Gaming proceeds may be used in accordance with the Charitable Gaming Policies Handbook (CGPH 5.22) for eligible amateur sports programs at the community or regional level that benefit youth, seniors, and/or persons with disabilities.

Adult sports groups, including governing bodies:

- With a youth component must use at least 50 per cent of gaming proceeds on its youth programs
 - Remaining proceeds may be used on adult programs, if applicable
 - A program for youth is one where players are 21 years of age or under and compete against other youth aged 21 or under
- With programs for seniors or persons with disabilities must use 100 per cent of gaming proceeds for those programs
 - A program for seniors is one where seniors compete against or with other seniors
 - A program for persons with disabilities is one where persons with disabilities compete against or with other persons with disabilities

With prior AGLC approval, gaming proceeds may be used for:

- Achievement awards (e.g., trophies, plaques, and ribbons)
 - Cash, merchandise, or any other prize of value is not eligible
- Officiating and judging fees if the officials or judges are approved by the sport's governing body
 - The Request to Use Gaming Proceeds to Pay Wages/Salaries FORM 5442 is not required
- Certifying officials and judges in their sport, including training and education
- Membership, registration, or affiliation fees to local, provincial, national, or international governing bodies when the fees are related to a group's specific objectives and individual members of the group do not also pay the fee
- Facility in accordance with CGPH 5.15
- Bursaries/scholarships in accordance with CGPH 5.5
- Travel in accordance with CGPH 5.23 and 5.24
- Uniforms and equipment in accordance with CGPH 5.13
- Wages for positions such as coaches, instructors, equipment managers, physiotherapists, and team physicians in accordance with CGPH 5.25
 - The Request to Use Gaming Proceeds to Pay Wages/Salaries FORM 5442 is required
- Food and non-alcoholic beverages for athletes, coaches, and support personnel at hosted Alberta games events (e.g., Alberta summer and winter games)