LICENSING INFORMATION

Alberta Gaming, Liquor & Cannabis (AGLC) is responsible for administering and regulating the gaming industry in Alberta, including the licensing of charitable gaming activities. Only eligible charities or religious groups are licensed.

To apply for a licence, the application form must be complete, and all required supporting documents must be submitted for review. The information must be correct and up-to-date. This will minimize delays in processing requests.

- Conducting a gaming event without a licence is a Criminal Code offence.
- All required financial reports must be up-to-date before new applications are processed.

AGLC must approve any changes to the approved licence or approved use of proceeds.

GENERAL RAFFLE INFORMATION

- Organizations conducting a raffle with a total ticket value over $20,000, for the first time, may be required to establish a secondary bank account in the name of the ticket holders to secure all ticket revenue until all prizes have been paid in full.
- All prizes must be listed on the application.
- Retail value of all prizes must be at least 20% of the total ticket value. Expenses cannot exceed 30%.
- If the prize is used merchandise, two independent appraisals prepared by recognized or licensed appraisers must accompany the application. If the prize is a restored or used vehicle, two certified appraisals and a vehicle inspection report must be provided.
- Other charities or religious groups may be paid a commission to sell tickets. They must use the funds only for approved purposes. No other person or group may be paid to sell tickets.
- Tickets cannot be sold or advertised outside Alberta.
- No raffle revenue may be spent until funds are available to pay for the prizes. This includes both raffle expenses and approved use of proceeds.
- Only approved expenses required to operate the raffle may be deducted from raffle revenue. Groups may hire a registered raffle ticket manager.
- Raffle tickets must not be sold to a person under the age of 18 years.
- Licence fees are required.
- Except for Bearer Ticket Draws, all raffle winners have 90 days from the date of the draw to claim their prize. The licensee must secure or place in safekeeping unclaimed prizes for a period of 90 days from the date of the draw. If at that time the prize has still not been claimed, the prize or monies equivalent to the fair market value of the prize must be donated to a charitable beneficiary approved by AGLC. Alternatively, with AGLC approval, unclaimed prizes or monies of equivalent value may be donated to the licensee's own approved use of proceeds.
- Allow at least eight (8) weeks before a licence number is required for ticket printing, advertising or electronic ticket selling platforms (ERS).
